Sketchbook included?  Yes  No

Students must submit at least 10 examples of their work and not more than 15. Large paintings, framed paintings, ceramics, sculpture, and all three-dimensional work should be presented through photography or slide views. Two views should be included for three-dimensional work.

A portfolio or red rope envelope up to 31" x 42" will be accepted. All of your artwork must fit within the portfolio. Portfolios containing artwork which extends beyond the dimensions of the portfolio will not be accepted. Each artwork should be clearly numbered and marked with your name and high school. We strongly encourage students to submit artwork from direct observation. Included in the submission should be a self-portrait from observation (not a photograph). We encourage you to submit your sketchbooks. Slides and small photos should be placed in an envelope and taped to the inside of the portfolio.

EXAMPLE: 1. Title/Medium: Flowers/Watercolor

Slides and small photos should be placed in a n envelope and taped to the inside of the portfolio. All work should be clearly marked with number of entry, your name, and school.
